Code of Conduct for Sabbatical Officers

Introduction

- 1.42 Sabbatical officers are elected into their position by the students they represent. Once elected and in post, they hold high office and become:
 - 1.42.1 Trustees of the Union,
 - 1.42.2 Union employees on a fixed term basis.
 - 1.42.3 An officially recognised representative of LSBU students
 - 1.42.4 A student member of the Union (if not already)
- 1.43 Sabbatical officers are required to uphold the standards of conduct expected of them in all of these roles, and this code of conduct aims to provide clarity about those standards.
- 1.44 Failure to follow this code could be considered as not fulfilling the responsibilities of any of the roles set out in section 1.42.
- 1.45 In addition to this code, Sabbatical officers' must also adhere to the obligations set out for them set out for them in:
 - 1.45.1 Trustee code of conduct
 - 1.45.2 Duties of the role in the Union's Byelaws,
 - 1.45.3 Sabbatical Officer employment contract
 - 1.45.4 Union Support Staff Handbook

Availability

- 1.46 A Sabbatical Officer is employed in a 'student-facing' role and will carry out the majority of work on campus, in the Union's workspaces.
- 1.47 Sabbatical officers must seek approval from the President and Chief Executive before working remotely.

- 1.48 Sabbatical Officers are expected to be available to students and the majority of work will be carried out during typical 'office hours', however, 'out of hours' working will be required from time to time and in these cases TOIL procedures for Union staff will apply.
- 1.49 'Out of hours' work will most likely be required to meet the following Sabbatical Officer commitments:
- 1.49.1 Welcome, Induction and Freshers – for both the September and January intakes and possibly others.
 - 1.49.2 Attending Trustee Board meetings and subcommittees.
 - 1.49.3 Attending LSBU Board meeting (principally for the President but this may at times include all Full-Time Officers)
 - 1.49.4 Attending Union Council meetings and sub-committees
 - 1.49.5 Union Campaigns and associated events such as Black History Month

Induction and Training

- 1.50 Sabbatical Officers are expected to fully participate in the induction training and any ongoing skills or personal development activity. This could include but is not limited to; training courses; workshops; external programmes; advance or supplementary reading, preparation work or research; coaching/mentoring sessions; or conferences.
- 1.51 Sabbatical Officers are required to develop a good working knowledge of the Union's governing documents and Byelaws, especially those relating to their obligations as an officer, employee and a trustee, and the Union's conduct and disciplinary processes.

Performance

- 1.52 Sabbatical officers will agree objectives and an action-plan with a member of the senior management team and the President which will be reviewed regularly, forming the basis of the report required for Union Council and the Trustee Board.
- 1.53 All Sabbatical Officers will attend an annual performance review (appraisal) of performance against objectives and this code of conduct with a member of the senior management team and the President.

Managing professional and personal life

- 1.54 Sabbatical Officers are the 'face' of the Union, and through their election by members, they are given the prestigious status of being the official representatives of LSBU students. This prestige brings with it a higher-level of responsibility and accountability which must be taken seriously, as failure to do so could result in significant risk for the Union.
- 1.55 Students are unlikely to see the difference between an officer's personal and professional lives, therefore, Sabbatical officers must be mindful that their words and actions, whether in or out of work is inextricably linked with people's perception of the Students' Union.

1.56 Within the remit of their role, and as set out in the Union's by-laws officers have an explicit obligation to:

- 1.56.1 uphold Union policy at all times;
- 1.56.2 be a key ambassador for the Union and;
- 1.56.3 to not in anyway bring the Union's reputation into disrepute.

1.57 Sabbatical Officers should give careful thought and consideration as to how both their public and private conduct might impact on these obligations. Officers are expected to uphold these obligations by:

Social Media

- 1.57.1 conducting themselves according to the principles outlined by the "Nolan" Committee (Third report July 1997) Standards in Public Life.
- 1.57.2 Using a professional internet/social media profile for Union work which is separate to personal accounts.
- 1.57.3 Applying the standards within this code of conduct to any public activity on the internet, whether via a personal or professional profile.
- 1.57.4 Avoiding using personal phones; phone numbers and email accounts; addresses etc to communicate with students about work related matters. The Union will provide officers with devices which should be used solely for communication in a professional capacity. The professional accounts and devices will be handed over to new officers at the end of an officers term.

Alcohol

- 1.57.5 Not drinking to excess when required to attend social events as part of the role.
- 1.57.6 Using professional judgement when not technically 'working' but attending a social event where students are present. For the avoidance of doubt, staff and other employees should not be drinking whilst working in their general day to day jobs.

Relationships

- 1.57.7 Declaring any relationship which could be perceived to impact on the role as a Trustee or Officer within the organisation to the Chief Executive, and not using the position of perceived authority within the student body to own advantage or abuse this position in anyway.

Press Enquiries

- 1.57.8 Referring all requests for press related activity to the Chief Executive who will notify the rest of the Sabbatical team as all public statements require cross-Sabbatical involvement, They will provide the Sabbatical team with advice and support in liaising with the contact; writing a press release and distributing it or providing a quote.

Public support for external / political causes

- 1.57.9 Upholding Union policy and democratic structures as bound in the Union's governing documents at all times. This includes not publicly speaking out on a specific issue or cause which members reasonably perceive as being representative of the Union and its policies as a whole.
- 1.57.10 Being aware of the legal principles affecting political activity for Charities within Charity Law. Sabbatical Officers should refer to NUS (NUS Guidance on Political Activity in relation to Students' Unions) senior managers or external trustees for advice and guidance on this matter before acting publicly.

Union Policy and Procedures

- 1.57.11 Upholding the Union and University's policy and procedures at all times, especially those relating to their role as a member; student; employee; elected officer and Trustee. This includes the codes of conduct for those groups and operational policies such as IT; data protection; health and safety, Equality, Diversity and Inclusion and Safeguarding.

Working with others

Support Staff

- 1.58 Sabbatical officers do not form a part of the Union staff line management structure. The Chief Executive Officer is delegated responsibility for the operational staffing and day to day running of the organisation by the Board of Trustees.
- 1.59 A Sabbatical officer in their role as a leader within the Union must strive to create a safe; respectful and inclusive working environment for staff and promote a culture which motivates staff to succeed. Officers are expected to uphold this by:
 - 1.59.1 Establishing good working practices with Union staff, seeking advice from the senior management team on managing staff relationships.
 - 1.59.2 Engaging with staff by taking an active interest in their work (even if not directly connected to the individual officer's role), by participating in group discussions and activity and attending meetings which have been scheduled– notifying the correct person in a timely manner if absence is unavoidable.
 - 1.59.3 Not discussing issues to do with staffing (such as recruitment, pay promotion, performance, complaints, grievance, whether informal or formal) directly with those members of staff, instead raising it with the Chief Executive, or relevant senior manager.
 - 1.59.4 This includes where there is a perception that a staff member is not working effectively. This should not be discussed with the employee directly, instead raised constructively with the Chief Executive, or relevant senior manager who will deal as appropriate.

- 1.59.5 Not discussing issues to do with staffing (such as recruitment, pay promotion, performance, complaints, grievance, whether informal or formal) with anyone outside the Union's senior management team. Sharing confidential or unsubstantiated information about a staff member leaves the Union and the Trustees at risk of legal liability.
- 1.59.6 Creating professional boundaries with staff. If a close friendship develops, the Chief Executive should be informed to ensure the officer's position is not perceived as compromised in anyway.
- 1.59.7 Adhering to the Union's processes and policies relating to staffing as set out in the staff handbook and EDI policy.

Other Sabbatical Officers

- 1.60 Sabbatical officers hold the highest office within the Union and must be the ultimate role models for upholding the fundamental principles of the student movement; student-led and democratic decision making.
- 1.61 These values underpin how decisions and agreements are made within the Sabbatical team, with decisions being sought collectively through open and respectful discussion, seeking advice from senior managers and external advisors where appropriate until a mutually agreeable outcome for all members of the team is determined.
- 1.62 A Sabbatical officer must actively build relationships with fellow officers which are supportive; encouraging and respectful and approach these discussions constructively. Sabbatical officers will do this by:
 - 1.62.1 Taking an active interest in the work and objectives of fellow officers and staff and helping them to achieve these.
 - 1.62.2 Understanding the remit of their role and the remit of fellow officers, taking on work or campaigns which are relevant only to their own so as to not undermine another's officer's role.
 - 1.62.3 Providing a safe and secure space for fellow officers and senior managers to discuss important and sensitive matters and opinions without threat of these being disclosed to other parties.
 - 1.62.4 Maintaining a regular dialogue with fellow officers – meeting with each other no less than once a fortnight.
 - 1.62.5 Respecting and adhering to decisions made by the majority, and not seeking to undermine these on the rare occasions that a mutually agreeable outcome cannot be reached. If this does happen, discuss with the Chief Executive or relevant senior manager who will offer support and advice to find ways for officers to fulfil this obligation without compromising the Union, or principles or beliefs which are important to the individual.
 - 1.62.6 Talking to one another at an early stage about any (potential for) conflicts or disagreements, maintaining a professional and constructive attitude and not using personal insults or attacks, seeking support from the Chief Executive or relevant senior manager if necessary

University Colleagues

- 1.63 Sabbatical Officers gain the opportunity to represent the Union and students at University boards and meetings, and to build relationships with important University stakeholders such as governors, executive team members and heads of department.
- 1.64 Sabbatical officers must use these opportunities to develop productive working relationships, and present a good image of the Union as a credible and trusted partner. Sabbatical officers are expected to uphold this by:
- 1.64.1 Attending all formal University meetings and boards as required within the role, and sending timely apologies to the relevant person if absence from a meeting is unavoidable.
 - 1.64.2 Use only the Union and University's appropriate boards and management structures to raise student issues or concerns, taking care not to use their position to inappropriately escalate directly to senior staff, bypassing those with immediate responsibility.
 - 1.64.3 Ensuring the President, Chief Executive and relevant senior managers are kept aware of any contact they have with senior members of university staff outside of formal or agreed University meetings to ensure that the SU is seen to be working in a co-ordinated and professional manner

Complaints

Scope

- 1.1 In accordance with the 1994 Education Act, this is the Union's complaints procedure.
- 1.2 These complaints procedures are for the use of students members; Associate Members, Sabbatical officers, elected officers; Union staff; or opted-out members who have a complaint about their treatments by individuals associated with the Union by membership status; elected office or employment.
- 1.3 In addition, an opted-out member may complain under these procedures if they feel that they have been unfairly disadvantaged by reason of having exercised their right to opt-out of Union Membership.
- 1.4 Complaints from University staff members or members of the public shall initially be dealt with informally by the relevant Union staff member, Sabbatical Officer or Trustee, and may be formally considered by the Senior Management Team or any other committee that the Trustee Board deem to be appropriate, but are not required to otherwise follow this procedure.
- 1.5 Complaints may be lodged against an individual or a group of members.
- 1.6 Complaints will be considered under this procedure when they relate to:
 - 1.6.1 dissatisfaction with the Union's operations or services;
 - 1.6.2 conduct of another member contradictory to the Codes of Conduct;
 - 1.6.3 conduct of a Union staff member, Sabbatical officer or Trustee
 - 1.6.4 any other issues which cannot be dealt with under alternative procedures, provided that the complaint is within the Union's jurisdiction to act.
- 1.7 A complaint shall not be considered under this procedure if:
 - 1.7.1 it is not within the Union's jurisdiction to act, in that it is not relevant to Union activity, operations or services and does not affect the membership rights and privileges of the complainant as set out in the Articles and the Membership Byelaws;
 - 1.7.2 it would be more appropriately considered under an alternative procedure.
 - 1.7.3 Complaints about Union representation and campaigning policy, these should be pursued through the correct democratic process as set out in the Byelaws.
 - 1.7.4 A complaints is regarding conduct during elections which will be dealt with under the Elections bye-law.
- 1.8 The Union will treat all complaints and any subsequent disciplinary action with confidentiality and has an expectation that all parties involved will ensure that confidentiality will be kept throughout any investigatory or disciplinary process including the content of meetings.

Referral

- 1.9 At any stage of this procedure, it may become evident that referral to an alternative procedure is the most appropriate action. In such circumstances and at an informal stage of the process, the complainant should be advised that this is the case, and signposted to the relevant procedure at the earliest opportunity. If at a formal stage, the Chief Executive (or their nominee) shall refer the complaint to the alternative procedure on the complainants behalf.
- 1.10 For the avoidance of doubt, where members also hold elected office within the Union, including Sabbatical officers, additional procedures may also apply depending on the nature of the complaint.
- 1.11 More appropriate procedures may include but are not limited to:
- 1.11.1 the democratic processes for complaints about the representative performance and conduct of elected representatives, Trustees and Sabbatical Officers; as set out in the Articles and Byelaws

 - 1.11.7 the Advice Service Office Manual for complaints relating to the advice service;
 - 1.11.8 action taken by the Trustee Board as appropriate.
- 1.12 In some circumstances, more than one procedure may apply, in which case complainants should be advised of their options.
- 1.13 The person handling the complaint, at either a formal or an informal stage, may seek advice from the Senior Management Team to ensure they are able to refer the complaint appropriately, but must be mindful to respect the confidentiality of the complainant.

Informal Stage

- 1.14 Informal complaints may be initially made informally (verbally or in writing) to any Union staff member, Trustee or Sabbatical Officer, who will decide the appropriate course of action which will usually include one or more of the following:
- 1.14.1 attempt to resolve the complaint informally themselves with the appropriate supervision of a Senior Manager; or
 - 1.14.2 advise the member to ask a more appropriate person to resolve the complaint informally, and who that person might be; or
 - 1.14.3 advise the complainant to escalate the complaint to a formal stage if the complaint is deemed too serious to resolve informally; or

- 1.14.4 refer the complainant to a more appropriate procedure; or
- 1.14.5 advise the complainant to seek support from the Union Advice Service.
- 1.15 In the instance of any safeguarding or duty of care concerns, they will immediately inform the Safeguarding Lead or in the absence of the Safeguarding Lead they will inform their manager, and advise the complainant that they are going to do this.
- 1.16 Informal attempts to resolve complaints could include mediation, conflict resolution, an apology, an appropriate refund/reimbursement, or any other informal action designed to resolve the complaint.
- 1.17 If, for any reason, a complainant feels unable to make a complaint informally as referred to above, or they are dissatisfied with progress or outcome of making a complaint informally, they may make a formal complaint.
- 1.18 If a complainant feels unable to seek advice from an individual, because their complaint relates to or concerns that individual, or for any other reason, they should seek advice from the Chief Executive or another member of the Senior Management Team.

Formal Stage

- 1.19 If an individual wishes to raise a formal complaint they should do so by emailing the Chief Executive who will nominate an Appropriate Complaints Officer from the Union staff team. If the complaint relates to or concerns the Chief Executive, the individual can raise a formal complaint by emailing the President who will nominate an Appropriate Complaints Officer from the Union staff team.
- 1.20 Statements of formal complaints should include:
 - 1.20.1 the nature of the complaint;
 - 1.20.2 details of the circumstances in which it has arisen;
 - 1.20.3 details of any steps taken so far to have the complaint dealt with; and
 - 1.20.4 details of the steps the member considers should be taken to deal with the complaint.
- 1.21 The individual should also attach to their e-mail or otherwise clearly identify any documents they wish to be taken into account in the consideration of their complaint.
- 1.22 The Appropriate Complaints Officer will consider requests for confidentiality in dealing with a complaint.
- 1.23 If a complaint is submitted anonymously, the Appropriate Complaints Officer will usually investigate taking into consideration the seriousness of the allegations and the level of detail provided within the complaint itself.
- 1.24 The Appropriate Complaints Officer may deal with the complaint as they consider appropriate in all the circumstances. On receipt of a complaint, the Appropriate Complaints Officer will respond to the complainant within 10 working days setting out how complaint will be considered.

- 1.25 The complaint will be considered in one or a combination of the following ways as appropriate:
- 1.25.1 the Appropriate Complaints Officer may investigate the complaint themselves; or
 - 1.25.2 may refer the complaint for investigation to another individual on their behalf; or
 - 1.25.3 may refer the matter to be dealt with under other procedures.
- 1.26 In some circumstances, a complaint may relate to various issues which require several procedures to be followed simultaneously in order for the complaint to be considered appropriately. In such circumstances the Appropriate Complaints Officer shall determine the most appropriate course of action.
- 1.27 In case of referral to be dealt with under any other Union procedure, it may not be possible deal with a complaint within a specific timeframe but the member will be kept informed of the anticipated timescale.
- 1.28 In the course of any investigation of the complaint the Appropriate Complaints Officer may, but need not, invite the complainant a meeting with them and/or other specified individuals to discuss the individual's complaint.
- 1.29 If the matter has not been referred to be dealt with under any other Union procedure as referred to above, the Appropriate Complaints Officer will take a decision in relation to the complaint and notify the complainant by email of such decision by no later than 10 working days of the complaint being received, or by such later reasonable time notified to the member. This decision may be:
- 1.29.1 To dismiss the complaint;
 - 1.29.2 To propose a resolution;
 - 1.29.3 That there may be a case to answer and should therefore be referred to another procedure, such as a disciplinary procedure.
- 1.30 If the complainant is dissatisfied with the Appropriate Complaints Officer's proposed resolution, the Appropriate Complaints Officer may take a decision to dismiss the complaint or that there is a case answer.
- 1.31 If the matter has been referred to be dealt with under any other Union procedure as referred to above, the complainant will be notified of the final decision under that procedure, and the complainant will not be entitled to any review under this Complaints Bye-Law.

Complaints principles

- 1.32 Students may be accompanied by, or represented by, another LSBU student at an investigation meeting. Alternatively, students are entitled to advisory support with informal or formal complaints under this procedure from the Union Advice Team or an LSBU staff member, provided that conflicts of interest and the general provision of advisory support to the member is managed in line with Union Advice Team policy and at the discretion of relevant team managers.

- 1.33 Under no circumstances may any members be accompanied by, or represented by, any other persons including external legal advisors, and contributions from such persons cannot be considered. Meetings and communications under this procedure, including at an informal stage, will only involve the appropriate participants and will not proceed otherwise.
- 1.34 Members may at any time withdraw their complaint or decline referral to an alternative procedure. However, if the complaint causes safeguarding or duty or care concerns, or significant legal or reputation risk for the Union, appropriate action will be taken in line with the relevant procedures (such as Safeguarding Procedures), which could compromise the confidentiality of the complainant. In such circumstances, a complainant will be advised that their confidentiality will be breached and the reasons why.
- 1.35 The person dealing with a complaint shall be empowered to request appropriate additional information from any relevant parties to assist in the investigation.
- 1.36 Decisions made and the reasons for such decisions shall be communicated in a clear and timely manner to members.
- 1.37 In the case that a call for a motion of no confidence does not meet the requirements as set out in the Union's Byelaws, the Chair of the Union Council will contact the proposer to explain the requirements which have not been met, and will refer them to the correct democratic processes set out in the Articles and Byelaws.

 - 1.3.1 The executive committee will meet to decide whether an issue submitted outside of the academic year is valid as an emergency.

Process for review

- 1.4 Once a policy has been submitted, it will be reviewed by the chair of the relevant meeting
- 1.5 The chair will be supported by a relevant staff member, usually the Chief Executive of the Union or their delegated representative
- 1.6 The following tests will be used to determine whether the policy can go ahead and be discussed at the meeting
 - 1.6.1 What is the evidence basis for the policy?
 - 1.6.2 Why is this policy relevant to the Members of the Union?
 - 1.6.3 Are there any operational, financial or reputational risks from implementing the policy?
- 1.7 If a policy proposal meets the stated tests, it may then be added to the agenda of the relevant meeting for discussion and voting by the members of that meeting

- 1.7.1 For any policy to pass, it needs a simple majority vote, except for instances laid out in the articles
 - 1.7.2 Once the policy has passed, it must be ratified by the Board of Trustees at their next meeting, who will reserve the right to reject the policy at that stage
- 1.8 If a policy proposal is rejected, then the proposer may appeal the decision through the following process;
- 1.8.1 They can submit their appeal and the reasons why they feel the policy fits the tests to the Chair of the Board of Trustees
 - 1.8.2 The Chair of the Board of Trustees will meet with the Chief Executive of the Union, or their designated representative, and the chair of the Union Council to determine whether there are sufficient grounds to appeal the original rejection
 - 1.8.3 Whilst the Chair will seek wider opinion from the Chief Executive, Chair of Union Council or the student proposer themselves, the decision on the validity of the policy will lie solely with them

Policy lapse

- 1.9 All policy that is passed will lapse to be Union policy after 3 calendar years for the passing of the original policy
- 1.10 Policies will not automatically be renewed to remain Union policy, but will cease to be Union policy at that point
- 1.11 If Members want to reinstate the policy, they would need to submit the policy proposal again using the policy proposal process and the policy will need to meet the tests at the time of it's renewal
